11. Conflict of Interest Disclosure: Please read and check Yes or No below

All individuals who have the ability to control or influence the content of an educational activity must disclose all relevant relationships with any commercial interest. Relevant relationships must be disclosed to the learners during the time when the relationship is in effect. All information disclosed must be shared with the participants/learners prior to the start of the educational activity.

Relevant relationships, as defined by ANCC, are relationships with a commercial interest if the products or services of the commercial interest are related to the content of the educational activity.

- Relationships with any commercial interest of the individual’s spouse/partner may be relevant relationships and must be reported, evaluated, and resolved.
- Evidence of a relevant relationship with a commercial interest may include but is not limited to receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (stock and stock options, excluding diversified mutual funds), grants, contracts, or other financial benefit directly or indirectly from the commercial interest.
- Financial benefits may be associated with employment, management positions, independent contractor relationships, other contractual relationships, consulting, speaking, teaching, membership on an advisory committee or review panel, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received or expected from the commercial interest.

Is there an actual, potential or perceived conflict of interest for yourself or spouse/partner?

Yes No

If yes, describe the actual, potential or perceived conflicts of interest:
(includes salary, royalties, stock, speaker’s bureau fees, consultant fees)

Please Note:

All applications must adhere to the following guidelines:
